FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Singapore 1st Economics Magazine For Students Is Launched !

Singapore, 19 May 2009 - MindLever Pte. Ltd. today released Singapore's first Economics Magazine For Students. MindLever, a leading provider of educational courses for students today is the publisher of Insights Magazine. The Magazine is targeted primarily at Junior College students in Singapore who are taking the "A" Level examinations but is equally relevant to other students of Economics in secondary schools and tertiary institutions.

Answering a market need to assist students to better translate today's economics issues to their correlation to textbook theories around economics, Insights is designed to serve as an invaluable study tool for students.

It is colourful and engaging and embodies modern instructional concepts like MindMaps etc. The 1st issue is focused on Staying Ahead Of The Competition and includes an exclusive interview with Mr. JY Pillay - Chairman of the Singapore Exchange.

Insights will comprise 6 issues per year and is available through schools and via online purchase. There will also be online digital versions catering to overseas audiences.
